Young people, especially the Millennials age group, are more like the “Greeks” of Acts 17 who need to be taught the foundation for our hope in Christ, beginning in Genesis, as Paul taught on Mars Hill.

The Acts 2 message by Peter is geared to those who have a Christian worldview background for understanding the gospel.

Christian values, traditions, and terminologies that were once common knowledge have become a thing of the past. Gospel Reset will help you understand how to effectively reach the lost with a message of salvation that actually makes sense. [Item W8 on library cart.]

A woman with dark hair, wearing a red top and a yellow skirt, is holding a large orange leaf. The background is a soft-focus outdoor scene with trees and a building.

<sup>6:14</sup> “For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. <sup>15</sup>But if you do not forgive others their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.”

<sup>18:15</sup> “If your brother or sister sins, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over.<sup>16</sup>But if they will not listen, take one or two others along, so that ‘every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.’<sup>17</sup>If they still refuse to listen, tell it to the church; and if they refuse to listen even to the church, treat them as you would a pagan or a tax collector.”

Romans 12:18

<sup>12:18</sup> “If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone.”

Ephesians 4:32

James 1: 19-20

<sup>1:19</sup> “My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, <sup>20</sup>because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires.”
